How to choose the right litigation lawyer to look after your motor vehicle claim, work claim or insurance claim...

Gavin Hanrahan, Partner (Litigation & Workplace Relations Lawyer)

When you want to know where you stand, and what your valuable legal rights and entitlements are, there are a few key things you should be looking for...

Hi, I'm Gavin Hanrahan. I've been handling motor vehicle claims, work claims, insurance claims and other litigation cases for over 14 years...so you know you'll be in the right hands...

I've had lots of experience in looking after people just like you who've suffered loss as a result of the negligence or wrongdoing of someone else...I'll always talk to you in Plain English so you'll never be in the dark about what your rights are, and what your chances of success are...

I'll explain to you up front how things work and keep you informed every step of the way so you'll be able to relax knowing exactly where you stand and how your claim is going...

Some important tips: Because I've found that many people often accept from insurance companies much less than they're really entitled to (mainly because they're not aware of their full rights), it's in your best interests to always get the right legal advice...and get it early...even on the simplest claim. And never accept what the other party or their insurance company offers you without first getting my advice. You'll probably be entitled to much more!

My team and I have years of experience in these areas of law:

- Motor Vehicle claims
- Work claims
- Insurance Law and claims
- Negligence claims
- Supermarket claims
- Workplace Law & disputes
- Defects in Products
- Civil and Commercial Litigation in all Courts

So, to find out exactly where you stand, and what you're entitled to, call me now for a free initial, no-obligation, confidential chat on 1800 356 144 (or after hours on 0417 409 719). You've got absolutely nothing to lose!
